The screenshot shows the 211 Lifeline website interface. At the top, there is a navigation bar with the 211 LIFE LINE logo and links for HOME, ABOUT, WHAT'S NEW, CONTACT, and WAYS TO GIVE. A search bar is located on the right. Below the navigation bar, a banner displays the user's name 'kmurty's Shared' and the email 'kmurty@FLXCOMMUNITYSCHOOLS.ORG'. A category filter for 'Food' is selected. A list of various service categories is provided on the left, including Housing/Shelter, Material Goods, Transportation, Utilities, Consumer Complaints, Consumer Regulation, State Trial Courts, Criminal Correctional System, Public Defender, Law Enforcement Services, Legal Assistance Modalities, Legal Services, Educational Institutions/Schools, Educational Programs, and College/University Entrance. The main content area shows 'Found 28 resources (displaying 1 - 10)'. The first resource is 'Emergency Services' through PathStone. It includes eligibility criteria: 'Must be a migrant or seasonal farm worker. Emergency one-time assistance only.' and languages: 'French, Spanish'. A location pin icon indicates the service is offered at 'PathStone Wayne County', 4075 Ridge Road, Williamson, NY. Hours are listed as 'Call for information.'.
